SIoux CITY ROUNDUP TO AFFORD THRILLS

Coming Celebration On July 3, 4, 5 and 6 Will Partake of Blood Letting Character.

Sioux City, Ia., June 15—(Special.)—The Mr. Cowboy who wins the world championship and the long end of the $2,000 purse hung up for riders in the Sioux City Roundup July 3 to 6 inclusive, will know after the contest that he has been doing a "tolerable lot of ridin'."

Joe Morton, manager of the big Independence day show, has just framed six separate contracts with parties in Texas, Wyoming, Montana and South Dakota for a string of outlaw and wild horses, which, the owners claim, have never been ridden.

It's to be "seasick time" for Mr. Cowboy and also for Miss Cowgirl, who also is to battle in Sioux City for championship honors. Incidentally the big crowds are to see the old west revived at the Interstate Fair grounds in the most interesting series of frontier day sporting events ever produced in this section of the middle west.

Cowboys will make night shirt rides, battle through potato games, do the Roman standing race of the prairies and even run the chuck wagon contest off in spirited style for the Roundup guests. Bulldozing of steers, roping games, trick and fancy riding events are on the bill, which calls for eighteen separate contests for each day of the show.

The reunion is being hailed as probably the last great assemblage of cowboys and cowgirls in this section of the middle west.

THE PAINS OF HELL EXPLAINED TO US

The Dangers of Ignorance and Superstition.

Pastor Russell Apologizes For Prevalent Misconceptions of the Bible's Teaching—The Worship of Hypocrisy and Fear, Great Spurs—God Seeks Worship Only From the Reverential and True-Hearted—Popular Misconceptions of Hell—The Injury They Have Done and Are Doing—True Christians Should Awake to True Bible Study.

Pastor Russell, N. J., April 27.—Pastor Russell preached in the Opera House this afternoon. His text was: "The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me."—Psalm 116:3.

The Pastor declared that his text, like many other Bible statements, is so grievously misunderstood as to prevent Christian progress. Many noble hearts, he claimed, are famishing for lack of refreshment of God's Truth. The channels of thought are blocked by fossilized errors of the Dark Ages. The ports of our hearts should be deepened and widened by the blowing up of the false and devilish hell doctrines, which hinder us from receiving spiritual nourishment. There exists "a famine for hearing the Word of God."

If this text were the only one mis-translated and misunderstood, he said, the ordinary reader would doubtless pass it by as a figure of speech. But it is merely one of a combination of mistranslations, all of which are connected with an eternal torment system of doctrines invented during the Dark Ages. This power of error is turning intelligent minds away from the Bible. Hence it is our duty to break down these false doctrines, and to clear away whatever hinders the flow of Truth to God's people.

The Psalmist is merely telling of his severe illness, from which by the grace of God he recovered. He would have it understood that it was not merely a slight ailment. Hence he described it as "the sorrows of death"—that is, the sadness associated with the thought that he was about to die, about to leave his friends. In poetic Hebrew, he repeats the thought in the next statement—"the pains of hell gat hold upon me." They were the pains of approaching dissolution. There is not the slightest reference to the future.

Why Not the Whole Truth.
In their revised translation of the Bible, our Baptist friends use the expression, "the underworld," instead of hell. Yet even here is danger that the average reader may not catch the true thought. Far simpler and wiser it would be had the translator said, "the pains of the tomb."

Every learned minister knows that the Hebrew word Sheol really means the grave, the pit, the state of death. Why do they hesitate to tell the people? Why do they translate it sometimes the grave, and other times the underworld? Why do they use the translation, the grave, in one place, the pit in another, and then refuse to translate it in a third place, giving instead the original word Sheol? Was it their intention to confuse the people? What is the motive? We wish that some of these great men would explain.

The Reason For All This.
We would like to have our ministerial brethren state their reasons for hiding the truth on the subject of hell. Only because they decline to do so, do we feel at liberty to make suggestions. These ministers seem to be of two classes, with slightly different reasons for silence on this subject. They seem to agree that it is dangerous to tell the people that God is really a God of love, and that the doctrine of eternal torment is unscriptural, promulgated during the Dark Ages by men who burned one another at the stake.

The Pastor declared that one class of ministers seem to fear that if people saw the errors of the creeds, they would discredit the ministers who had taught these doctrines. But why fear to tell the truth? Perhaps they fear that people will lose confidence in their teachings, and that the party walls of Christendom, which have so long divided God's people, will fall. Since they will not tell us, we can only surmise.

Other ministers, he said, have become higher critics, and do not believe the Bible. They prefer to pose as believers, and hope for the time when all the wealthy and intelligent will have become believers also. Then they will say, "We have been unbelievers for many years, but have kept it secret, fearing to be misunderstood as opponents of the best interests of society."

The latter class constitutes the greatest menace to law and order, and are Satan's best agents in destroying faith in God's Word. Ingersoll's methods of antagonizing the Bible were far less successful than are those of modern higher critics and evolutionists.

Would it not be wise to inquire to what extent false doctrines are responsible for the increase of wickedness? Will monstrous, unthinkable delusions produce better results than will the simple Message of God's Love?
